

6

trucks do not transport to local hospitals when asked dispatch supervisors about them, he received conflicting explanations including "private medical transport for special needs patients" and "contracted van for industrial sites" which he sought further explanation and clarification. He was told to stop the inquiry as [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] heffinate private law firm override local oversight. Two weeks ago, I managed to photograph one of their employees in close proximity of the Gobblegorn warehouse. The unit number was MF0-7. I checked the vehicle registration and found that it is owned by Integrated Medical Services [REDACTED] contractor with multiple contracts